

G3aiR

Services for the Aerospace Industry in Russia and the CIS

What is G3aiR?

G3aiR is a French company created two years ago by Charles Hergott.

Its goal is to help SMEs in their approach of the Russian Aerospace market and/or expand their business in Russia and the CIS.

G3aiR is teamed up with Allied Aviation Consulting in Moscow for logistics needs.

What we do : Consulting

We can :

- Do a market study
- Provide you with regular news on the market
- Search for contacts, competitors, potential partners

We have compiled a complete industrial aerospace phone book.

What we do : assistance at shows

We can :

- Organize your meetings
- Organize your events
- Organize your PR and Marketing
- Follow up on the contacts after shows

What we do : Logistics

With our partner company Allied Aviation Consulting based in Moscow, we can help with the import or the export of your goods into or out of Russia.

Thus, we can :

- Search new and/or used GSE, spares, tools, etc...
- Help you with the paperwork
- Help you solve certification issues (both GOST R and aerospace)
- Assist with the domestic transport inside Russia

What we do : PR and Marketing

We can :

- Organize press-conferences
- Send out press-releases
- Edit your material in Russian
- Help with the printing
- Organize your business events (cocktails, lunches, concerts, etc...)

What we do : Representation

Instead of spending a lot of money on an expat who won't know the language and the environment ; instead of spending money on a native whose culture is unknown to you, why not trust us to represent you everyday in Russia and the CIS?

We do :

- The PR and Marketing
- The logistics
- Meet all year long with the main actors of the aerospace industry
- Participate in shows

We are specialized in Aerospace : we ALREADY have the contacts YOU need!

The companies that have already trusted us : Allied International Corp., USA ; SatCom Systems, France ; Field Aviation, Canada ; Neptec Design Group, Canada ; Axon Cable, France
